HONGKONG, MONDAY, JUNE 9, 1879.

The Ordinance "to establish a Spirit Farm in the Colony and to consolidate and amend the Ordinances relating to Distilleries and to the Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors," was read a second time at the last Council meeting, but it cannot be said to have yet been even considered, far less discussed, by the members. It will therefore not be out of place to draw attention to some of its provisions, pending its exhaustive discussion by our local "Parliament." One point may be at once made in its favour. From a first glance of the draft we came to the conclusion that all malt and fermented liquors were included amongst the dutiable liquids, and a strong remonstrance against this step was seriously meditated; when it was discovered that no change in the purchase and sale of wines and fermented liquors in quantities of two gallons and upwards has ever been intended. This will be a pleasant assurance to many who regard malt liquor more as an article of food than as a beverage or stimulant, and to not a few also who look with suspicion upon any unnecessary fiscal interference with the daily transactions of life and business. The mistaken impression evidently arose from a natural confusion of terms used in the Ordinance. In the preamble of the Bill it is stated to be "expedient to impose duties on all spirituous liquors consumed or used in the Colony;" in the Interpretation section, "spirituous liquors" are defined to mean any distilled intoxicating liquor, liquors and Chinese spirits, but excluding distillations for

A CHINAMAN was brought up at Brisbane on the 18th May, charged with larceny of a letter containing a cheque for £103. The letter was delivered to him in mistake, and he immediately cashed the cheque, bolting with the proceeds. He was caught at Rockhampton while endeavouring to leave for Hongkong.

We learn from the Northern Territory Times that the British steamer William McKinnon left Port Darwin on the 14th May for Hongkong, with more than one hundred and thirty Chinese, many of whom have a large quantity of gold with them. She has now, therefore, been 25 days out.

The E. and A. Co.'s R.M.S. Somerset arrived at Cooktown on the morning of the 18th. She left Hongkong on April 19th, Singapore April 27th, and Thursday Island May 11th. She had light winds and fine weather from Singapore to Cape Jackson, thence to Cooktown strong southerly and south-east winds, with heavy head sea.

The Dagblad of the 9th ult. says:—"On Trong Gan, a Chinese-Mandarin of the 5th class, who is charged by the Chinese Government with taking the preparatory measures for a regular steam navigation service between China and the ports of Singapore, Penang, Batavia, Samarang, and Sourabaya, paid his respects, on Saturday morning last, to the Resident of Sourabaya, on presenting his credentials. The Chinese mercantile community expect much benefit from this facilitation of communication with the Celestial Empire."

We cut the following telegrams from the Strait Times—

London, May 27.—The Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to a question, said that Sir Garnet Wolsey has been instructed to entertain bona fide honourable peace proposals, should they be made by King Cetewayo.

London, May 28.—The Houses of Parliament have adjourned for the Whit-tide recess.

London, May 29.—It is announced that Mr. Lobanoff, the present Russian Ambassador in Turkey, will be appointed Russian Ambassador to the Court of St. James.

The Manila Comercio of the 2nd instant states that the steamer Salvadora arrived there from Hongkong on the 31st ultimo, and in her papers there was a remark by the Spanish Consul at Hongkong, informing the authorities there that "at Canton, a place a few hours' distant from Hongkong, black small-pox has been declared with epidemic character, although in Hongkong no measures have been taken to prevent its being communicated." This remark was the cause of retarding the delivery of the mails on board the steamer. An officer from the Post Office was sent on board to open and fumigate the mails. As soon as the Salvadora was boarded by the Health Officer, the yellow flag was hoisted by order of Dr. Candelas, until a meeting should sit to decide as to what convenient steps should be taken. The meeting was held on the 1st instant, and it was decided that as the circumstances were not of an alarming nature, vessels from Hongkong should be put in quarantine for 36 hours only; and as the Salvadora had been under restriction for over that period by the time of the decision, she was admitted to free pratique. The steamer Sorsogon, which arrived there on the 1st instant, from Hongkong, was under quarantine observation until the 3rd instant.

In reference to the contract for the duplication of the cable from Singapore to Port Darwin we take the following from the Australian papers just to hand:—

Sir Henry Parkes stated in the Assembly that the contract was signed in London on the 9th May, and that the reductions in the charges for transmission of messages between London and Port Darwin are to take effect from that date. The reductions are in terms of the fifth clause of the agreement approved by Parliament in the month of November last, in the shape of "a rebate on Government messages of 60 per cent., and on Press messages of 75 per cent." over the lines of the Eastern Extension Company. But the omission is not to be made to any colony other than such as may contribute towards the subsidy. The contributing colonies are New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, New Zealand.

The first instalment of the new duplicate cable to be laid by the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company between Port Darwin and Singapore (we learn from a telegram received by Mr. Grigor Taylor, Superintendent and Electrician of the New Zealand and New South Wales cable) is being shipped on board the Edinburgh (steamship), and is to leave London in about a fortnight. Another portion follows in the steamer Scotia shortly after, and the whole is being rapidly manufactured and shipped. The core is of a design specially prepared so as to resist attacks of marine insects, being protected by brass tape wound spirally. The external wires are each protected, first by adhesive mixture, then by tape, and the whole is encased by two coverings of tape. It is fully expected that the whole cable will be laid and in working order well within the contract time.

We learn from a telegram in Australian exchanges, that General Garibaldi, the famous Italian liberator, died in Rome on the night of the 6th May. This great hero had been ailing for some time, and it was only the other day that we read of the circumstances surrounding the visit to the King of Italy, which showed that he was suffering from great bodily prostration. A telegram dated Rome 7th April gives the particulars we refer to:—

General Garibaldi, on arriving here, was greatly fatigued. He was carried on a couch to the residence of his son Menotti. The King sent an aide-de-camp to visit him. A more pathetic scene than that of Garibaldi's arrival at the railway station has seldom been beheld. The shouts raised as the train entered the station were speedily silenced on the circulation of a report that the General was ill. He was carried from the train on a mattress placed on a large litter. He lay extended, with a red handkerchief bound around his head. It looked as though a corpse were being carried in state. It was found impossible to move him from the litter, which was placed in an open carriage and drawn, accompanied by a mournful silent crowd, to the house of his son Menotti Garibaldi. At Civita Vecchia, the side of the railway saloon was used to admit the litter. The general slept well, however, on Saturday night, and the doctors think he will leave his bed within a week. His friends assert that politics are wholly unconnected with his coming here. He found that his health was not improving at Caprea, and thought the mineral springs near Civita Vecchia might benefit his gout. Garibaldi, replying to the Syndic, who visited him on his arrival, said he did not himself know the reason of his visit.

The correspondent concludes with the ominous words, which have by this event been so sadly justified: "Some say Garibaldi has come to Rome to die."

By way of Australia we learn with regard to the House of Lords throwing out, on the second reading, the bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister, that H. R. H. the Prince of Wales made a speech supporting the bill, and presented a petition in its favour. Ruter told us absolutely nothing about the matter, and all we learned from the Indian papers was that the bill was thrown out; and that the Prince signed a petition in its favour.

The following telegrams, also from Australian papers, are either new or fuller than those we have already received via India:—

London, May 1. In the House of Lords, a long discussion took place on the question of free trade and protection. The Earl of Beaconsfield, in a speech on the subject, declared that the establishment of a system of reciprocity, or a reversal of free trade principles, was an impossibility.

London, May 18. Advice has been received from Cape Town to the 28th April. No military movement had taken place since the date of the last despatch. In the Transvaal the great meeting of the Boers has ended. The Boers quietly separated, after drawing up a memorial to the Queen. This memorial they entrusted to Sir Bartle Frere, to be forwarded to England. The terms of the memorial are in favour of the complete independence of the Transvaal, consequently Sir Bartle Frere refused his support to the document.

The Transvaal—A State of 112,000 miles, having 36,000 resident whites and a native population variously estimated at from 360,000 to 1,000,000—was proclaimed under the Queen's Sovereignty as late as April 1877, by Sir Theophilus Shepstone, who has continued to govern under the powers given him by the Special Commission under which he went out. There has been a force of 1,000 maintained. Parliament in 1877 voted £100,000 in aid of the Transvaal funds, and as precisely the same reasons exist now for our administering there as justified our taking possession of the country two years ago, it was only to be expected that Sir Bartle Frere would not approve of the petition. Nor is it likely to meet with better success when it goes home. The troublesome Boers will have to be dealt with by Sir Garnet Wolsey.

Police Intelligence.

(Both Magistrates Sitting.)
Monday, June 9.

ADVICE AT THE POINT OF THE KNIFE. Wong A-I, a widow, was charged by one Cheong Chieh, a tailor, with threatening his life with a knife.

Complainant said he and defendant were lodgers in the same house, and the former wanted to rent an extra room in the house. He was bargaining with the landlord for the extra room when the defendant abused him, and threatened to cut him with a knife.

Defendant said she was only giving the man some good advice; she told him he did not want any more room as he had no family.

Mr. Creagh bound her over in $20 to be of good behaviour for the next twelve months.

OBSTRUCTING THE FAIRWAY TO PEDDAR'S WHARF. Kwok San Ho, a boatman, No. 1089, and Li Ami, boatman, No. 1195, were charged with obstructing the fairway to Peddar's Wharf. They had been warned several times, but as soon as the police boat went away, they returned to the wharf. Mr. Creagh fined them each one dollar.

A REGULAR BASE. Cheng Afai, a seaman unemployed, was charged by Inspector Swanton (1) with making a false report at the Show-ka-wan Police Station and (2) preferring a false charge against one Mow Sing, Captain of the Sin Wo, Sai Kung passage boat.

Inspector Swanton stated—On Saturday night at 8 p.m. I returned to my station from Victoria and found a man in custody charged with being concerned in the murder of one of the officers of the Chinese Cruiser Peng Chow Hoi on the 1st May last. The man was not locked up, and I entered no charge against him, as I did not believe there was any foundation for the charge. The complaint was preferred by the man whom I now charge as a rogue and vagabond. I enquired into the case at once and satisfied myself that there was no reason for suspecting the man charged with being implicated in the murder. I therefore dismissed him and made a prisoner of the man who charged him. I told the other man to appear at the Police Court to-day to prefer a charge against him. The grounds upon which I detained defendant were that he could give no satisfactory account of himself; he had no employment. The Inspector was unable to make the Magistrate clearly understand the grounds upon which the man had been detained. He said the constable could give full particulars.

His Worship requested him to put the constable in the witness-box.

The Inspector explained that he was away dressing himself, and asked His Worship to dismiss the case.

His Worship said that the case should never have been brought up; the charge should at least be made in some intelligible way and the witnesses should be in attendance.

The case was then dismissed.

LARCENY FROM A EUROPEAN.

The remanded case in which one Tam Ayan, a chair coolie, was charged with stealing a miscellaneous number of articles the property of his employer came on again to-day. The police had been unable to find out where prisoner lived or where he was taking the articles; probably to some sweetheart. Mr. Plunket disposed of him by sending him to gaol for one month with hard labour.

DRUNK. William Curry, seaman, American barque Adelaide Norris, was fined 40 cents; in default one day's imprisonment, for being drunk and incapable in the public streets.

CHARGE OF STEALING $1,000—A CHEQUE OVERPAID AT THE CHARTERED BANK.

Wong Aying, a shopman, was charged, on remand with stealing $1,000, the moneys of the Chartered Bank of India Australia and China, which amount it was alleged, was overpaid him by mistake on a cheque for $2,000 drawn by D. Musso and Co. in favour of Chu Cheong Loong. Mr. Wotton appeared to watch the case on behalf of the Bank, and Mr. Ng Choy to defend the accused.

The facts of the case have already been fully reported. Defendant went to the Bank, presented the cheque for payment, and the Chinese accountant or shroff alleged that mistaking the cheque to be one for $3,000 he paid that amount to defendant in bank notes. The mistake was not discovered until the cash was balanced at the Bank that evening. The defence was a simple denial of the allegation, defendant stating that he only received $2,000.

Yung Cheon Chung, the accountant, was recalled; he stated that when he went to the defendant's house with the Constable, the people said defendant was out. The Inspector and witness searched the house for him, but he was not to be found. The people in the house again said defendant was not there. There was one room in the house witness wanted to enter when some of the people called out; "You had better look out if you go in there." The door was not fastened, and the Inspector and witness entered and saw the defendant with his head leaning on the table, as though to conceal his face. There was no window in the room, and it was therefore very dark. Nobody but defendant was there. Defendant was arrested about 4 p.m. on Saturday the 31st May.

Mr. Ng Choy, cross-examined this witness at some length, but elicited nothing tending to weaken his testimony. He admitted that he was often making mistakes of the same sort, of one or perhaps two dollars. He had never been in a Bank before; formerly he was employed at Shanghai. There was no notice struck up in the Bank setting forth that all moneys paid into and received from the Bank must be counted at the counter at the time, and that no claims were to be made afterwards by either party. He understood English but not "deep English." The mistake occurred by his reading the figures wrong; he mistook a 2 for 3; he always went by the figures and not by the words. He made the mistake through the pressure of business; he had many cheques to pay at the time; it was not the first he had paid that day. When he received the cheque from Yung Ahan he did not ask what the amount of it was; it was not usual to do so. Before money is paid out of the Bank it goes through two persons' hands; it is not customary to pass it through three persons' hands. Defendant was not asked by any one what was the amount of his cheque. Witness would swear to that by cutting a c-o-k's head off. Persons presenting cheques were sometimes asked that question, but it was not usual to do so. Witness further said that if he had paid defendant $1,000 short he must have paid him afterwards, even if three days had elapsed.

Hoong Chui Nam, a Chinese assistant at the Bank, was then examined, and corroborated previous witness's statement with regard to the amount of money paid to the defendant. In cross-examination, he said it was the custom to ask people presenting cheques how much they had to receive. He did not do so on this occasion, because last witness had called out "pay $3,000." He admitted that he ought to have asked the defendant how much he had to receive, and that it was carelessness on his part not to do so. It was also carelessness on the part of last witness not reading the cheque properly.

In reply to Mr. Wotton, witness said he was quite certain he received $3,000 from last witness, and was quite certain he saw defendant write his name on the back of the cheque. He was positive he handed the $3,000 to the defendant.

Yeung Akin, another assistant at the Bank, whose duty it was to keep a record of all cheques paid, corroborated previous witnesses, and P. O. Grimbles deposed to arresting the accused, and his denying the charge.

The case was then committed for trial, Mr. Ng Choy reserving the defence; defendant was admitted to bail in $3,000.

RIFLE MATCHES AT HOWLOON.

On Saturday afternoon the Hongkong Rifle Club celebrated its "opening-day," and a most successful meeting was held; delightful and suitable weather favouring the members.

This meeting in connection with the Club was held in one of the tents on the grounds. About thirty members were enrolled, and the following were appointed a Committee of Management:—Inspector Cameron; Sergeant

Barnes, 27th Regiment; Sergeant Whitehead, Hongkong Volunteers; and Mr. Walkington. The first-named takes the position of Treasurer, and the last is Secretary. It will be observed that on the Committee the four elements of the Club are represented: the Regular and Volunteer Forces, the Police, and the Civilians. Rules were framed and other arrangements made for the working of the Club, which promises to have a successful season. The actual exercises of the afternoon were then begun.

After Pool—for which all entered, and in which Sergt. Barnes (27th Inniskillings) made six bulls'-eyes, the highest possible score under the conditions—a Match was got up between two fourteeners; conditions, 200 yards, seven rounds, third-class target. Inspector Cameron and Sergt. Whitehead (Volunteers) were chosen Captains of the respective fourteeners, and that under the first-named Captain "totted-up" six points more than the other side. The following is the detailed score:—

NEWS BY THE AUSTRALIAN MAIL.

By the E. & A. steamer Bowen, which arrived here on Sunday, we have our Australian files for the month. She brings those dates: Sydney May 17, and Port Darwin 28.

QUEENSLAND.

A child, five years of age, the son of some German settlers named Fassner, is lost in the scrub, (lat) and has been missing for over two weeks. An extensive search already made has been without avail, and it is feared that he has been devoured by native dogs.

At the Supreme Court, on the 2nd, John Austin and John Budd, charged with the illegal possession and use of a still, were sentenced; the former to twelve, and the latter to eight months' imprisonment. Jennings, the publican who was arrested at the same time, charged with being in the possession of illicit spirits, has been sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment.

Advices from the Agent-General state that nearly twelve hundred immigrants are about for this colony. They are coming in the Southland, for Rockhampton; the Earl of Derby, for Brisbane; and the Southland, for Townsville. Mr. T. J. Sadleir, formerly Police Magistrate at Tambo, attempted to commit suicide while on his way to answer a charge of embezzling Savings Bank funds.

H. E. the Governor, Sir A. E. Kennedy, O.B., opened the second session of the eighth Parliament of Queensland on the 12th. He was attended by the usual guard of mounted police, and was received by a guard of honour, composed of Volunteers from various companies. There was an unusually large attendance of the general public, amongst whom considerable interest was exhibited as to the contents of the speech. There was a full attendance of members of both Houses, and a large number of ladies were present. The speech stated distinctly that no attempt would be made to increase the Customs duties, but it indicated the probability of a new loan to carry out harbour improvements and railway extensions. A Financial Separation Bill, and other measures of lesser importance, are promised.

NEW ZEALAND.

Sir George Grey and Mr. Sheehan attended the Waikato native meeting 2nd inst. Tawhiao would neither invite nor oppose their presence. He says they go on Kew's invitation. Four thousand natives assembled from all parts of New Zealand. Sir George Grey had a body-guard of 400 Ngaratians, from the Bay of Islands. The natives have enormous supplies of food collected.

The Government organs advocate the issue of another four-million loan. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Hercules Robinson, was most warmly received in the Southern districts, and was highly pleased with the country.

La Mothe de Fiquet, French war ship, has arrived at Auckland from Noumea, and goes to Tahiti. She reports that the disturbances in New Caledonia are nearly over, and that the settlers are returning to their plantations.

Advices from Samoa state that General Bartlett, successor to Colonel Steinberger, was sworn in at Samoa to assist the Government in carrying out laws for the protection of property.

Gales had visited Tonga, and the residents were suffering from dysentery. The American schooner Concordia, bound to Barataria, has been totally wrecked on the Society Group. The captain, crew, and passengers, 26 in number, were all saved, but they suffered fearful privations, and were seven weeks on a barren island before they were rescued by a passing vessel, and taken to Tahiti.

VICTORIA.

The Hon. George Harker, died on the morning of the 26th, aged 68. He was Treasurer in the O'Shannassy Ministry of 1859, and for many years occupied a prominent position in politics as one of the members for Collingwood.

The returns of imports and exports, just published, show a falling off compared with those of the previous year, and also a decrease in the intercolonial trade.

About 2000 selectors assembled at Mount Macedon on the occasion of throwing open the land. One selector, named Connor, shot another. There were 800 applications for the 63 allotments, and for the two best allotments there were 82 and 78 applications respectively. About 600 persons camped in the neighbourhood.

Parliament is further prorogued to June 24th.

The Corporation has decided to expend £2,500 in planting shade trees in the streets of Melbourne during the winter.

The humane Society have urged on the consideration of the Government the expediency of forcing on masters of ships the necessity for carrying a life-belt for each passenger and seaman.

The agricultural statistics just issued show that the total wheat crop is 5,715,465 bushels, showing a decrease on the previous year of 1,302,792 bushels; produce 2,347,997 bushels, showing an increase of 307,511 bushels. The extent of land under tillage is 1,566,924 acres, showing an increase of 144,422 acres. The area under wheat is 658,413 acres, showing an increase of 93,849 acres. The analysis of the statistics shows that, without making allowance for wheat, we shall be short 600,000 bushels, and a similar quantity having been already shipped since the commencement of the year, the estimated deficiency will be 1,200,000 bushels.

A professional team of English cricketers is expected to visit Melbourne during the International Exhibition.

The Argus in a leader, 5th inst., accepts Mr. Service's plan for the solution of the difficulties between the two Houses; that is, that in the event of irreconcilable differences existing between the two Houses both should be dissolved, and if after such dissolution no agreement could be come to, they should sit together and settle the question by a joint vote. In the hope then that such a method of preventing deadlocks, and providing the means of bringing every issue to an ultimate determination if thought desirable will prove satisfactory to reasonable men of all parties and restore the much-needed peace and quietness to the land, the Argus says that in taking this solution of the difficulty it will be one of those compromises which are inevitable in practical politics, and inseparable from the Government of a free people.

The full particulars of the floating of the New South Wales loan received on the 5th, created a great sensation in commercial circles. There is now almost a complete unanimity in denouncing those newspapers which persisted, month after month, in decrying the credit of the colony of New South Wales, and regret is expressed that the action of the Argus, in endeavouring to restore confidence amongst English capitalists in Victoria, has not been successful.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

The Corporation have written to the trustees of the electric light as to the cost of lighting Adelaide.

The Government hope they will be able by the 1st July to call for tenders for making the drain of the drainage works to the sea. They propose to have it made of concrete instead of brick, so as to give employment to labourers out of work.

A serious charge has been made against Captain Moore of the barque Carrier, by Mr. C. F. Stanbury, agent for the owners of the barque, to the Marine Board, of twice attempting to wreck her, for the purpose of obtaining the insurance money. The proof mainly rested on the statements of discharged seamen. The Board considered that sufficient cause had not been shown for reopening the inquiry, and declined to do so.

2,800 immigrants have arrived since January last, and a good many persons are out of work. The Government are finding employment for those who require it, on the Hallett railway extension. Mr. George Fife Angus died the other night, aged ninety. He took part in the foundation of the colony, and was at one time a member of Parliament, but for years lived privately, devoting his attention to charities. His wealth was enormous, and his benefactions very great and numerous.

Monsieur Duperret, who has been keeping a small wine shop here, and was formerly an officer in the French army, has come into a fortune of $300,000.

Mr. Berry telegraphs (30th ult.) that he has had an interview with H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, who expressed a strong desire to visit Australia, but would not be able to be present at the opening of the Melbourne Exhibition. His Royal Highness, however, promised to send a portion of his collection of presents to the Melbourne Exhibition.

In the Insolvent Court there has been an examination showing that a tailor named Nicholson, who commenced business in January, 1877, with a capital of 15s., left off in January last owing £3,900.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

In the Assembly, May 16th, Sir Henry Parkes said that the cost of the International Exhibition building up to the present time was $285,000; it was estimated that the cost of completion would not exceed $36,000.

Captain Ferguson, of the steamer Ripley, a gentleman who has for some years past shown a most spirited enterprise, as a pioneer of trade and civilisation in the Solomon Islands, has just arrived here, and from him we learn that another unprovoked and barbarous massacre has to be added to the long list that marks the Solomon Islanders as the most treacherous race of known savages. It appears that Mr. James Morrow, from Sydney, and in charge of a cutter trading in conjunction with Captain Brodie, of the Arctik, was sailing along the coast of Guadalcanar, when he met a party of Malana natives in their canoes. They attacked the cutter, and killed Morrow, then cut off his head. A native youth (a native of Marau) was also treated in a similar fashion. The natives took possession of the cutter, and a large quantity of cargo, and there is little chance of recovering either. The season in the Solomon has been a most wretched one, and fever and ague has attacked most of the Europeans who are settled there. The native population throughout the group have suffered greatly, and the mortality with them has been very large. Four Europeans, comprising the Ripley's crew, have come into port in a most wretched state, suffering from the fever.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

Preparations for a jubilee, to celebrate the anniversary of the colony, are being made in the principal townships. There is considerable mortality amongst the Chinese population at Port Darwin (May 12th) and they show great inhumanity towards each other. An inquest has been held in a case where it was alleged that the Chinaman was taken out into the bush and left to die; but the evidence of this was not conclusive. The Government Resident at Port Darwin has had to employ 800 Chinese on relief works, owing to the great destitution which is prevailing amongst them.
